"Texture Vision" displays the rare package of a first rate singer/songwriter/piano player, displaying a fresh unique style ranging from pop/rock to jazz with a classical twinge. 11 MP3 Songs POP: 90's Pop, POP: Piano Details: LARISSA = Austin's version of "Norah Jones on Fire"...She's also been called "the new Female Gavin Degraw"---Not only does her unique writing style provide variety for all music lovers, but a live performance entrances the audience both visually and aurally. A rising star on the Austin Music scene, she can be seen on Austin Music Network in her music video, "I Wonder Why," and on Fox morning shows, and the WB. "Having a different feel with every track," LARISSA's CD, TEXTURE VISION, is said to have "something for everyone." The Facts wrote, "Put her CD "Texture Vision" into the stereo, and it's easy to tell that she not only takes time to reveal herself through her music, but has spent years developing her craft." Because of her background as a trained musician, her melodious vocals and emotionally creative piano work on several acoustic tracks deliver the punch of a full band and can stand alone. But by adding guitar and percussion work of several world-renowned musicians, you have a hit album with no filler tracks.
