Details: TOKEN ANGEL was originally developed by Sharon Benson and Sheryl Olson, after a project they had been working on together needed to change direction. As soon as this was realized, they were catapulted into an inventive phase of writing. Combining their notably different styles produced a distinctively fresh class of music and lyrics. With the passing of several months and an incredible amount of newly created material, they began the search for other gifted personalities. Shortly thereafter, Debra Billingsley came to join them. When her own style and talent was added, a magical trilogy was born. To succeed in bringing this innovative team to it's entirety, the quest continued. Finally, Dana Lewis and Tracey Brown arrived. The band was now formed. With the unity of these five women, came an energy so great, it could not be contained. The unique diversity of their musical backgrounds sets the foundation for an exciting performance of unpredictable enchantment.
