Details: Tony Morris is a singer/songwriter on a mission and armed with his brand new debut album recorded with famed producer Michael Flanders , he is ready to unleash his unique style of country music on a public hungry for talent. Growing up on a diet of Jonny Cash, Gary Allan and Garth Brooks, Tony was raised in the Darling Downs region in Quensland where he found his love of country music, rodeos, motor racing and a variety of rural pursuits. Dreaming of one day following in the footsteps of his idols, Tony began singing in pubs and clubs around Queensland and NSW where he quickly became popular. After such encouraging and positive feedback from his live performances, Tony was convinced it was time to take the next step and began writing in earnest with established writers, Michael Flanders, Chaise and Col Finley. The end result is "REVELATIONS", a polished debut album featuring a blend of original tracks with carefully selected songs from some of Nashville's finest writers. Though unmistakably country through and through, Tony Morris could be considered to be the thinking man's cowboy of the new millenium with his rugged but cool exterior and warm vocal delivery. Quiet and unassuming, there's an air of mystery about Tony Morris that is inescapably attractive and is sure to win him a legion of fans as he takes his music to the world. Visit tonymorris.com.au
