Details: In January of 2008, four talented individuals came together to create an evening of song, poetry and readings in celebration of Scotlands best-loved bard, Robert Burns. Their aim was to offer an eclectic collection of material written by and inspired by Burnssome of it familiar, and some less sodesigned both to entertain, and to simplify the man and his works for those who find it all a bit daunting. The show, called Simply Burns, was presented to a packed house at the Watermill bookshop in Aberfeldy, Scotland. It was intended to be a one-time-only event, but as time went by requests were regularly received for it to be repeated. Eventually, the artists decided to revive the show and take it on the road throughout Scotland and beyond. This album includes a selection of songs, poems and letters from Simply Burns. If youve been to the show, then we hope it will be a reminder of an enjoyable evening. If you havent been, then well hope to see you in the audience some time soon The Simply Burns artists are: Douglas Craik (guitar, vocals) Linda Dewar (guitar, vocals) Anna Hepburn (spoken word) Claire Hewitt (clarsach, vocals)
