crunkdafied,gangsta,educating,street,hip hop basically what you really need to hear... 18 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: I was born in Monroe,Louisiana on August 21st as, De'Artae Rice, in the rough Southside Atkins Quarters neighborhood.The day I was born, My mothers younger brother died like a couple of hours before I was conceived.Growing up my mother and father really couldn't look out for me like they wanted to because, I had five other brothers and sisters, so it was kind of hard, so throughout the years I lived with my moms godparents, and my dads mom.My uncles and the streets raised me throughout the years of my upcoming, because, my parents really couldn't.I had to grow up really fast.Me and my cousin Ayanna would be outside at the ages of eight and nine seeing crack,weed,crime,prostitution, and everthing you can imagine in the ghetto.We used to say to each other "I hope we never have to do that",But all that changed when I turned 13, I started smoking weed and and a year later I started to hustle like I used to see my uncles do. I started off with small things like, selling cigarettes at school then, I moved to weed, and when I turned 16 all I thought about was money. A couple of months after I turned 16 I got stabbed by my dads brother in a fight, after I came from the hospital, I told myself that I needed to slow down, but, my life speeded up. He was trying to kill me every night. I slept with a gun praying to God to let me live. that went on for 4 years till I moved with my mom and dad and got closer to them and my family. I turned 17 and decided to pursue a career in rap, so I named myself Young T.H.U.G., and formed a group called The T.O.G. (Thowed Off Gang)ever since then it has been on, so if you wanna know more or if your ready to stop reading, purchase my album it's hot!!!
