Lyrics One, two, three, four Everybody over there go and have some fun. Because you know that you're the one. Because you know that I'm the one! But if it helps you, go ahead and tell yourself you're better than Z. Though we both know that the truth is that you wish you could be me. I understand how you feel, you see; It's quite a trip being me. That's right, Ahura Z. What do you do when you don't know? Just go and ask vo-do-dee-oh-do Ahura Z will journey with you To all the places others won't go (Ready to seize the day?) So come right in, take your shoes off, have a seat. You can relax your mind, increase your peace, Kick up your feet and stress release, Adjust your seat and then repeat. Doesn't really matter what we do today, Just as long as it's done in a positive way. And if anybody has a thing to say About the way that you walk when you walk that way, Just tell them talk to Z. That's right, Ahura Z. What do you do when you don't know Just go and ask vo-do-dee-oh-do Ahura Z will journey with you To all the places others won't go Repeat Credits Lyrics Credits: Ahura Zakhuur Diliiza Music Credits: Ahura Zakhuur Diliiza Producer Credits: Ahura Z.
