Details: Barbara Anne is honored to be a music artist advocate for the worldwide organization Compassion International which supports underprivileged children. Barbara Anne Fillion started singing in her home town church in Brookfield, CT in 1985. Self taught on the guitar and always having a flair for poetry, it wasnt long before she started writing songs. One of her first compositions was putting the "Lord's Prayer" to music. Since then she has penned over 400 songs. Around this time she had been asked to fill the need of leading Praise and Worship for the Danbury, CT chapter of Womans Aglow International, a ministry to women. She held this position for 3 years. She wrote the theme song for Local Pathways of Faith a Christian Cable Television Program and she has worked with childrens and teen singing groups and written songs for Christmas programs. Being prompted by a close friend to do something with her songs, she met with a local musician/producer. The meeting led to the making of her 1st album Highway Home, released in 1988. This experience opened the door for her to join the Christian band Messenger. For the next 4 years, they ministered at Womens Correctional Facilities, Nursing Homes, concerts, country fairs, church events, weddings and church fellowship banquets. During this time, Barbara had the opportunity to be interviewed and share her testimony on Trinity Broadcasting Network live in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. For a short span after this, she performed traditional country, patriotic and old time songs at country fairs and fundraisers throughout CT. She was in the line up with Patty Loveless at the Durham Fair and opened for Clinton Gregory at the Lebanon Fair. She met backstage with country artist Mary Chapin-Carpenter, and country legends, Porter Wagoner and Jeannie C. Rylie. Though she says, meeting the southern Gospel quartet The Easter Brothers was by far the most memorable. After a short hiatus from songwriting, one day coming home from work, she had an idea for a country Gospel song. A few hours later HIGH ON THAT MOUNTAIN was composed. This sparked a new writing spree and several songs followed. Her latest CD, appropriately titled, HIGH ON THAT MOUNTAIN was released in November of 2006 on her independent record label, Dove Star Records. Some of Nashvilles finest musicians set their talents to this album having played such venues as the Grand Ole' Opry, Dollywood and The Smoky Mountain Jubilee, Jay Leno, Dave Letterman and worked on The Buddy Holly Story as well as backing such artists as Dolly Parton, Loretta Lynn, Tom T. Hall, Merle Haggard, The Kingdom Heirs, The Perrys and more. The CD contains original songs as well as her rendition of some favorite Gospel and Christian songs. Barbara Anne currently sings and shares testimony at woman's events, concerts, coffeehouses, nursing homes and church services. She lives with her husband of 34 years and they have 2 adopted children and 2 grandchildren.
