A dedicated mom, soccer coach, teacher, business owner and all-around Renaissance woman, Cryer lives in Seattle with her husband Randy. In this CD she recorded all vocals, and plays most of the instruments, with a little help from bassist Gary Sparling and percussionist extraordinaire "JC" Johnny Conga. "Bronwyn Edwards Cryer... seems to have a knack for quickly capturing the soul of her listener. I personally was inspired by her incredible ability to span a wide range of musical styles ranging from jazz, big band, and blues, to straight out rock. And frankly, some of her piano riffs are simply jaw dropping." Rob Goodwin, mididrumfiles.com
