He Resides in Carmel Highland California and Appears on the Monterey Radio Station at KNRY For Bossa Nova enthusiasts, it will perhaps be sufficient merely to point out the existence of a new collection of original songs by Rigoli and Angel with all that is most winning, lyrical, tender and human in the modern music that describes how people feel about Brazil. Rigoli and Angel have written a body of songs that are among the most affectionately beautiful and deeply touching in years. Rigoli's Quintet states these pretty compositions warmly-they are obviously for blowing. The improvisations fit the same relaxed groove. Full Bio of Carl Rigoli: Carl Rigoli was born in New York City and raised in Astoria Queens. At the early age of three he became interested in music. At sixteen he began performing professionally and after attending the Manhattan School of Music he received a Bachelor of Music and Masters Degree in Music Education in 1965. Carl started performing with the vibes in 1964 at the Worlds Fair in New York City with many well-known studio musicians. This eventually led to working in nightclubs and in the studios. A year later he performed in such famous clubs as the Copacabana and the Latin Quarter both in New York. At the Waldorf Astoria he performed both with the vibes and percussion for such super stars as Frank Sinatra, Julie London, Johnny Mathis, Carol Lawrence, Tony Bennett and many others. In 1970 Carl moved to Los Angeles where he now makes his home with his wife. He has
