Carmelita Terry debuts with her first solo project entitled I Give You Praise. I Give You Praise was produced by Stellar Award Winner, GRAMMY-Nominated Producer/Artist Label Executive Troy Sneed (CEO of Emto Gospel). I Give You Praise is a musical journey of traditional and contemporary songs that will capture the hearts of Gods people and challenge them to move to a higher level in HIM. Carmelita was born with the sounds of music planted in her soul. Growing up in a small town in Florida, she often heard her momma and grandma humming and singing around the house and that inspired her to sing. Hailing from a musically inclined family, Carmelita quickly blossomed into a singer as she sang at many gatherings with her brothers and sisters. Singing a song would always make her feel as if things werent that bad. The more knowledge she gained about God and the affects of music, the more she realized that songs had power. A song would make her feel strong though she was weak; happy when she was sad. When Carmelita needed to hear a word from God or get through a difficult situation, strength often came through a song. To hear this album is definitely a spiritual treat. Carmelita opens this project up with the true spirit of Christ in the soothing worship song of Welcome that will usher you into His presence. Carmelitas soul stirring energetic traditional flavor is evident on the classic remake of Take Me Back written by Grammy Award Winning Andre Crouch while Making A Way showcases her strong vocal ability that seems endless as she moves to the up-tempo church rocking selection of Down In My Soul. Carmelita has been blessed to open up for Prophetess Juanita Bynum in April 2006 and she is currently appearing in the national televised commercial for Maxwell House Coffee (Kraft Foods). Carmelita is a member of New Covenant Ministries in Jacksonville, FL under the leadership of Bishop Wiley Dr. Jeana Tomlinson. She is also an active member of the Praise Team/Choir. Carmelitas sincere desire is to praise, uplift and glorify God. For More Information Contact: The Integrity Solution Kishia Kimbrough PH. (904) 772-1490 Email: kishia@theintegritysolution.com
