Christmas pop, jazz, and gospel with great vocals and production. 14 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, SPIRITUAL: Contemporary Gospel Details: For over a decade, David DeMarco has toured the US singing about the love of God and leading thousands in responding to God's presence. As a songwriter, artist, and worship leader, David has a uniquely refreshing way of connecting people to God. Born near Pittsburgh, David grew up as a pastor's kid in a small town, playing sports and music all of his life. At the age of 17, he performed his first concert and launched into full time ministry at 22. With moves to Tulsa Nashville, David invested himself in both the Christian and musical capitals of the US. During these years he became exposed to the idea of using music to glorify God and reach people. In 1999, he recorded his first CD, Made In The Image, produced by Lincoln Brewster. The title cut would catch the attention of Pro-Life organization, National Right to Life. Over the next 7 years, David would write and record 4 more projects: Free to Worship (2001), No Place Like The Presence (2002), Revealed (2005), and Uplift (2006). The music would gain national attention from churches and other organizations. The CD, Free to Worship, was named one of the top 100 praise and worship projects by Experiencingworship.com. In 2005, David's song "Deeper" was selected as one of the top 10 new praise and worship songs by The International Worship Institute. In 2006, two of David's works appeared on an NBC sitcom and another on an MTV reality show. Davids newest release, Amplify, is an epic pop collection of modern worship songs. The Season Still Sings is a compilation of pop, jazz, gospel, and traditional Christmas carols with 2 exclusive holiday originals. "Remember Me" captures the feeling of loss and hope for those who have loved ones on the other side.
