Anglo-Chinese Pop. Folk Pop. 13 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Edward Lee is a Canadian artist blessed with multicultural influences. An award-winning singer and songwriter originally from Hong Kong, he says he is of the East, West, North and South. He calls himself a Cosmopolitan. He had extensive stage and T.V. performing experiences. His songs are spontaneous, philosophical and cross-cultural. His favorite themes are Love and Life. Comments on Edward's inter-cultural CD "Enter into Life's New World": "It is a mix of folk-pop-country that sounds, vaguely, like a mix of Chris Isaak and Ennio Morricone." (Arts Entertainment, Yukon News Dec. 10, 1997). In 2001, Edward released an all English CD "Light and Fire" with 10 of his original songs. The songs on that album are in the style of Folk, Pop and Rock, with a twist of World and Country. For Edward's long BIO, visit and find out more about this CD. In 2004, Edward released a new CD titled "Why Why Why ?". The album is again in the style of Folk, Pop and Rock, with a twist of World and his own uniqueness. The songs are largely about Life, Love, Freedom, Peace and Humanity.
