Modern Rock with a nod to Foo Fighters, Green Day, and Puddle of Mudd 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Punk, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: fish like fluid This is the real thing. No rock star contrivance, no intellectual perspective, and no master plan for world domination. Just three guys in their mid twenties from southern New Jersey who wanna rock; who if they weren't doing this, would be working in a supermarket or a lumber yard or fixing cars. fish like fluid (formed in Sept. 2002) is a hard-hitting, yet melodic power trio with a repertoire of catchy tunes that often start off loud and somehow manage to get even louder by the end of each song. "Down Your Throat" is fish like fluid's debut demo CD featuring lead singer/guitarist Brian Szovati's solid vocals that alternate between sensitive crooning and blood-curdling screams - making commerce from the chaos. The deafeningly loud and uncompromisingly intense rhythm section belongs to bass player Bryan Giorgianni and drummer Sandy Weed. Armed with new material, fish like fluid is looking to bring their energetic and fiery brand of melodic rock to the masses.
