frozen plastic is spaceage chillout lounge music which is a collaboration effort between Jeff Farley and Jeff Charreaux. Influenced by Eno, Edgar Varese, Morton Sobotnik, Tim Rice, Wendy Carlos, Perrey Kingsley, Air, Stockhausen, Legendary Pink Dots. 8 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo, ELECTRONIC: Ambient Details: Being emulous and hyperborean by nature, frozen plastic is inspired by the everyday objects and tools. The gelidity of can openers, forks, paint drying and tv dinners makes them immutable. Forever working to twist and mold these objects into incognizable shapes, forces us to conflagrant the supernatant. Come listen to the marooned icebox compositons of frozen plastic. This unique and unpredictable instrumental collaboration project of soundscapes, transports the listener into strangely familiar territory that evokes a wide spectrum of landscapes, thus letting the imagination soar like a cosmic rain cloud across the infinite motionless world. frozen plastic has two other releases for sale on cdbaby: "glider" and "Superdense Gallery Music". Check them out!! Also, look for "The Headphone Macroscope" to be released in April 2005.
