loud, distorted, garagey, fast rock roll - some people might call it punk 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: Punk, ROCK: Hard Rock Details: ifg has been around since 1993 kicking out the jams from the cruel streets of L.A. Hellhound On My Trail is the fourth full-length CD from ifg. It sounds and feels like a drunk driver doing 120mph with an 1/8 of a tank of gas and nowhere left to go. It's time to face the music, so to speak. The hounds have finally caught up. Christy fronts the band on an another incredible album. Her voice is a gift from God and the devil at the same time. She makes Courtney Love sounds like a choir girl. The fury of the band is unstoppable. Jeff Edward's drumming would make Lemmy drool. Sean's bass playing could have made Sid Vicious wish he had learned how to play. Alan and Stress' duelling guitar work makes you think two guys from the Delta blues scene just discovered Metallica. You'd better breathe deep when you put this CD on, because there will be no time to catch your breath. You can try to run, but you can't hide - my dogs will get you.
