Nanci Griffith Bonnie Raitt should consider this download. Details: I grew up in a very musical family. My father played guitar and my mother played the violin. We as a family would often get out our instruments and sing and play music for fun and for special occasions. We always enjoyed singing parts and harmonizing together. I believe the music I have written reflects the many styles of music I listened to growing up. Artists like Gordon Lightfoot and Peter, Paul and Mary to mention a few. I started playing guitar when I was 12 years old and learned quickly having a pretty good ear for music. Later I began playing in a contemporary Christian group writing much of the material that we performed. In the 80's I joined a 50 - 60's rock band called "The Teen Angels". This helped me with stage presence and performing in public. In the 1990's I along with another band member formed a group called "The Stick Ponies". We played a variety of styles including blues, alternative rock, classic rock and motown. During the past few years I have been doing my own originals which has been quite exciting-and a lesson in patience! Over all I am thankful to God that He has given me this opportunity to serve others with the gifts

He has given me and I am grateful for my family and their contribution to my life; a contribution which has served in shaping me into the individual that I am today and helped me in the accomplishments that I have made in my life. Thank-you sincerely and God bless. Karen McMillen
