Details: Lullabies for Grownups - Stars is slightly longer than an hour and designed so that each song leads gently to the next and the last song leads back into the first. This album was composed in the summer of 2008 in beautiful Bozeman, Montana on a Regent baby grand piano in my studio, with the nighttime splendor of our gorgeous Montana sky. Recorded on a Yamaha C-6, 611 Concert Grand, at Peak Recording and Sound, with the thoughtful and peaceful Gil Stober at the controls. I am grateful for his heart and his encouragement as we created this gentle music. The piano sounds fantastic, and I highly recommend purchasing the CD. I created 3 Lullabies for Grownups albums. Clouds is the first and available on CDBaby, and you can look for The Moon this winter! Thanks! Kate Kohler From the moment I listen to Kates music I feel inspired and uplifted. Anna-Pia John Hubacher, Pantheon Research Stars by Kate Kohler is the work of a composer and pianist working in a perfect balance of passion and craft. There's a mathematical precision to the execution of this song cycle that evokes vast and beautiful inner moods. The themes and structures capture the spiritual and scientific wonder of gazing heavenward from the earth. Angle, light, color, and distance are conveyed with a technical finesse that touches grace. Be light. Ascend. Make a wish. This is music you can breathe. Greg Owens, Writer/Performer
