Diverse collection of Pop, Powerpop, Ballads, and Jazz all in one phenomenal collection of world-class songs from the best writers and players in the business, including Colbie Caillat, The Bulgarian National Orchestra, and others. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: Known by many from Season 6 of American Idol, Sarah Burgess' single "Dangerouz," has risen to #9 on the AC chart, a strong follow up to her first single, "Didn't Matter That," which was written by Mikal Blue and Colbie Caillat. Born and raised in Eastern Ohio, Sarah currently lives in Western Pennsylvania, close to her family. With a strong, smoky pop voice reminiscent of Alicia Bridges and Fergie, Burgess both caresses and belts out pop, powerpop, jazz, and ballads with equal vigor. Within days of her contract signing with PME Records, Burgess was opening for Daughtry and Day of Fire at the Colorado State Fair. "We couldn't have been happier with the job she did" explains PME President Craig Patterson, "She tore that place apart." Some heavy-hitting session players are recording for the album "One," including Greg Mathieson (Christina Aguilera, Barbra Streisand), Doug Jackson (Ambrosia, Kenny Loggins), and the world-renowned Philharmonika Bulgaria, recorded in Sofia, Bulgaria. The album also includes covers of songs from Gerry Rafferty and Rosette, and was mastered by Arnie Acosta (U2). With a heavy media presence that's already included features in TV Guide, TV Guide Online, M Magazine, J-14 Magazine, ABC and CBS Soaps In Depth, and a host of others scheduled, Sarah's coming up quickly. Liner Notes: Produced by Craig Patterson for Jackalope, LLC Recorded at The Fun House, Aurora, CO USA, and other studios as noted within. Recorded and mixed by Craig Patterson, and as noted within.
