SIK DA DON SIKOSA: 2,190 Days STILL BREATHIN' The album which was recorded in Detroit, Toledo and Atlanta has been Marquis Devlin Turner aka Sikosa's solo opus into the rap game...6 years, 2,190 days to be exact... is a long time to think about your life and what you plan to do with it and it's many blessings. Sik Da Don Sikosa...this MC has a tale to tell...Convicted and sentenced to 6 years in jail in 1998 for armed robbery. A literal child of the streets, Sik lost his mother at the tender age of 6...he's never known his father...to Sik, the street has been his only family. "I was in the streets since 10 years old...I wasn't homeless, I was just passed from relative to relative. The only real constant in my life has been the hustle of the streets and Hip Hop....I started spittin' rhymes when I was about 10...like everybody else, I dreamed of fame and fortune. But, at an early age I knew that life wasn't fair...so I concentrated on making paper while keeping Hip Hop and my music as a hobby. When I became a teenager, my voice started changing you know....getting raspy and thick. Soon, when I would rap cats would comment on how good my voice sounded...I was encouraged by my peoples to go into the studio and work on an album...That's what I did, while supporting myself with a whole lot of hustles...legal and illegal. But, then my money got funny and my change beyond strange and I did something stupid and robbed a spot...long story short, I got caught and sent to prison for 6 years, 2,190 days be exact." Sikosa has chosen to vent his feeling, frustrations, dreams and goal utilizing his unique voice and style propelling the 17 track CD...It's been a longtime coming but now, Sik Da Don Sikosa is here.
