Supernatural's much anticipated third album continues with ambient and melodic Rock and Pop music, containing a number of tracks that should be played both on commercial radio stations as well as to Directors. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: "Never give up" Never give up (2007) Supernatural's much anticipated third album (released March10) has finally hit the streets. 'Never give up' was a true across-the-pond production (if you're interested in reading about the production, please go to modernnguitars.com/wolf/archives/002493.html - the care and feeding of a virtual Band) and included recording sessions in the US, Germany and Portugal. It took Peter and Thomas 18 months from start to finish. The title track was written for the German National soccer team and the World Cup 2006 in Germany. 'Never give up' continues with ambient, melodic and modern Pop-Rock songs, often compared to Artists like Tom Petty, Peter Gabriel, U2, Coldplay and Howie Day. Several tracks of the new album have hit potential and should be appealing to Directors, advertising and fashion.
