Electronic New Wave 11 MP3 Songs POP: with Electronic Production, POP: New Wave Details: VAV JUNGLE hails from Canada. Vav Jungle (who is solely owned run by Eve Rice) makes music with quirky fun grooves to make you feel "real" and "with it". As of late, V.J. is being touted as one of the most important performance art act's around one of the few to succeed in a few genres rather than just one. Eve from the band calls it "performance bar art". Other musicians appear live with Eve and on some recordings as well. V.J. performs live in-studio. The music has appeared in an episode of "The Chris Isaak Show", played regularly for years on the CBC nighttime radio show "Nightlines" and in the film recent Hollywood feature "Jane White is Sick Twisted" (janewhitemovie.com). Vav Jungle is also responsible for the theme music in the regional CBC FM show "Shaken Not Stirred" which airs twice a week on AM and FM radio in Winnipeg, Manitoba (CANADA). CREAM CORN BATH What can we say about Vav Jungle's "Cream Corn Bath"? Hmmm - It takes you to the land(s) of Eurotrash techno, new-wave and 70's disco. It's a skanky little album with a baby boomer baby feel. If you grew up in the height of new wave weird dance tunes, you will get this album. Only difference is, it's all electronic but cranked up, it's really fun to 'freak out' to (and drink to, make love to). Eve is in a bath of dirty lookin' cream corn and adoringly looking at herself while burning up her mirror - The name of this album is inspired by an episode of "The Jerry Springer Show" - "This couple was into sex AND food and had a cream corn bath to clean up afterwards" says Eve of V.J. Hilarious!
