Classical Guitar, alternates between traditional and contemporary pieces 16 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Traditional, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: Prior to recording with Mason Williams, Craig einhorn recorded this collection of old and new music, thus the title. The CD alternates between solo guitar pieces; mostly Renaissance and Baroque, and contemporary pieces composed by Einhorn for guitar with other instruments. Some of Einhorns compositions are greatly influenced by his study of African Music while others are soulfully lyrical with heartwarming melodies. Barbara Walters used several selections from this CD on national television. If you already own Einhorn's CD with Mason Williams "Obras", this CD would make an excellent addition to your collection and would be appreciated equally.
