Homemade Groovy Country Power Pop. Red River meets the Thames. 8 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ROCK: Progressive Rock Details: Ho-Hum, based out of Little Rock, plays a straightforward blend of rock and pop. It's like the love child of The Wrens and Coldplay or something. Their latest release (titled "Losty") can be ordered from their label through the website. Getting dangerously close to a political commentary, I think it's worthy of mentioning here that one of the members of Ho-Hum, Rod Bryan, is in the process of running for Governor of Arkansas. He recently obtained enough signatures to get on the ballot. His platform is extremely progressive and features a lot of environmentally-friendly proposals, which is kind of groundbreaking in the state of Arkansas. Cruise on over to his website and check out his blog, both of which are totally excellent. His "Why I'm Running" and "Vision of Arkansas" essays are fantastic..... Macktronic
