He wrote his first song aged 11 and now has a catalogue of over 200. They are nearly all predominatly guitar driven and reflect Jim's eclectic taste in music. Jim has been a professional musician since leaving music college in 1981. He spent the early part of his career playing guitar for various rock musicals including 'Cats' and 'Evita' as well as being musical director for three European tours of 'Hair'. In 1992 Jim relocated to Switzerland which, with its central location, provided an ideal base for European tours and a relaxed atmosphere for composing and recording music. In 1999 Jim's songwriting took on a modern country flavour resulting in a trip to Nashville, USA and new artists wanting to record and perform his songs. The years 2000/2002 built upon this momentum with Jim's reputation as both songwriter and guitarist rapidly growing within the country scene. "An Everyday Story" is Jims 3rd Album. The first track 'When You Find Love' reached the top 40 in May 2002 on the US Independent country radio charts. As a highly accomplished and sought after guitarist Jim regularly appears with many of Switzerland's finest Artists.
