Swingin', Funky, Organ/Sax Jazz quartet. 6 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, BLUES: Funky Blues Details: Keith has performed along side some of the giants of the business including Paul Anka, Benny Golson, The Temptations, Ray Vega, Ralph Lalama and hundreds of other great artists. Keith has been living and performing in the NYC area for over 7 years. Keith regularly leads his own groups performing original compositions and arrangements. Keith also has released three CDs under his own name: Rhythm of the Blues, C.D.'s Delight and now One Last Stop and Keith has been heard on the airwaves all over the world. Keith continues to perform and teach regularly in a wide variety of contexts including clinics in High Schools and Colleges. Keiths unique style has allowed him to perform and record in many genres of music. He is on dozens of recordings including being a featured soloist on the Grammy nominated album Entres Amigos by Alex Torres and the Latin Kings. Keith also has been able to perform on ABCs Good Morning America and The View, also the Food Networks Food Nation. Other performances of note include Newport Jazz Festival, 103.1 Smooth Jazz Festival, Tulip Festival, Larkfest, Fleet Blues Fest, as well as the featured artist at A Place for Jazz. Keith also was the winner of ASCAPs Louis Armstrong Award and the Essex County Performing Arts Award. Keith has played in groups ranging from R&B to Jazz, Latin, Big Band and many other styles. With his first release as a leader in 2001 Rhythm of the Blues, listeners have said Keith has the soul and energy of a young Cannonball Adderly and that Keith always makes us feel good when we hear him. Keiths style can be attributed to the influence of Cannonball Adderly, Lockjaw Davis, Maceo Parker, Earl Bostic, Johnny Hodges, Willis Jackson and Jackie Mclean (as well as many others deep in the tradition). Keith continues to hone his craft through study and practice and by trying new ideas on the bandstand. Currently Keith is performing around the North Eastern Region with his latest project which is an organ and sax driven band that performs original music by Keith. Keith is also a member of Local 802 Musicians Union, BMI, and the International Association of Jazz Educators. Feel free to visit keithprayfor for more info.
