Details: This is a special new live disc from No Second Troy, recorded at the famous 930 Club in August 2008, which has hosted the best musical acts in the world since the 1980s, including Radiohead, Wilco, Death Cab for Cutie, the Arcade Fire, Stars, and many of the other bands that have influenced No Second Troy. Part of the reason for the concert was to raise awareness of 1Well, a nonprofit that connects the socially conscious with high need communities throughout the world in order to build life sustaining projects like wells, toilets and childcare centers, providing poor communities with the opportunity to work for a living wage. (Visit 1wellfor more details.) The concert is a mix of some of the best songs from the band's successful debut album Narcotic and new tunes that may be on its upcoming studio album. ABOUT NO SECOND TROY No Second Troy is on the verge of making the jump to the national stage. Recently featured on SPIN Magazine's website for the premiere of their new video for 'Into Your Sun,' the band's LP "Narcotic" has garnered critical acclaim nationwide, spending 3 consecutive weeks on CMJ's Top 200 playlist and appearing on ESPN, TMZ and XM Radio. Just two weeks after its release, the band was the featured artist of the week on XMU's R/A/D/A/R Report as one of the top unsigned artists in the country, and was added to the station's regular rotation. The band then went on to reach 5 on Alternative Addiction's Top Ten Unsigned Bands and charted at 8 on the K.K.B.B. Indie Top 20. After receiving spins in hundreds of cities across the U.S., ESPN featured "The Gardens After Lockout," "Brighten Up," "Burned," and "Masquerade" on Baseball Tonight and SportsCenter. In a recent review, The Washington Post called the songs on Narcotic "as ready for primetime as you will ever hear," while TMZ tapped the band as one of the Washington-area bands with the talent to break out of the DC scene. OnTap magazine notes that NST is "already being called the best unsigned band in DC" for its combination of "radio accessibility and indie rock sensibility." Featuring the earnest vocals of Jeff Wharen, backed by the bands subtle layering of guitars, piano, organ, bass, and drums, No Second Troy has found a way to blend the pop hooks of bands like Radiohead, Snow Patrol, and Coldplay, with the unique indie-rock arrangements of acts like Death Cab for Cutie, Arcade Fire, and Stars. In the spring of 2006, the bands EP caught the attention of noted producer Ted Comerford (Army of Me, Zox, Virginia Coalition) and also landed them a coveted slot at the North By Northeast (NXNE) festival in June of 2006. After showcasing, the band worked over the summer and into the fall with Comerford and mixers Jeff Juliano (John Mayer, Jason Mraz, David Gray), Mike Plotnikoff (My Chemical Romance, All American Rejects, the Cranberries) and Paul David Hager (Goo Goo Dolls) to finish "Narcotic" for its May 2007 release. NST has played to packed houses at the Knitting Factory Main Stage and Mercury Lounge in New York, the 9:30 Club in Washington D.C. and the Viper Room in L.A.
