

Mp3 The African Alphabet - Kids/family: General Children's Music

DOWNLOAD HERE

Fun authentic African sing-along songs for kids. Learn the ABC the African way through vibrant African grooves themes. Adult friendly too. Introduces kids to world music the wonders of Africa. 13 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, WORLD: African Details: The African Alphabet contains 13 fun sing-along songs for kids of all ages. The songs are an A to Z of things African are composed in vibrant African styles ranging from Afro-Jazz, Afro-fusion, Afro-pop, to traditional sounds a whole lot more! Aside from teaching the Alphabet in a novel way, kids are also exposed to wonderful African themes. Learn about Ululating, Yebo, Impis, Marimbas to name just a few! The African Alphabet is the brainchild of the songwriting/production team of Graeme Sacks and Erika Strydom. Graeme Erika run Burnt Bread Productions through their company, have been composing producing music together for the last 6 years. The team have written recorded music for 3 educational theatre projects, a number of South African artists, an Afrikaans childrens CD many radio television commercials. Lead vocals on the The African Alphabet are by the talented Relebogile Lebo Mabotja. Lebo has featured in many TV stage productions in South Africa including ETVs Gospel Grooves, Fame-the musical Kompleks. This young performer has all the makings of a Diva is certainly worth looking out for! The African Alphabet also features the talents of Kelly Petlane on flute, pennywhistle alto saxophone. Petlane is an internationally renowned jazz musician who has performed recorded with many top musicians around the world. Also on the album are a wonderful group of kids from Redhill School in Johannesburg, under the leadership of Elise Coutts-Trotter. This vibrant album is adult friendly too (no purple dinosaurs were involved in the making of this album)!

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

MP3 In Color - In Color \(the Lamp Album\)