Never Be Still $7.77 (PDF) A Harvest Song for SATB Choir Acappella Words by Alfred Perceval Graves Quern Tune Irish Air from Horncastles Irish Entertainment Arranged by M Ryan Taylor with thanks to C.V. Stanford I found this song in an old collection of folk music some years ago and arranged it for a Phoenix Rising (my chamber choir) Harvest concert. The Text: Maids at morn, grind the good corn Each in her mill, with a will In go the oats, wheat and pearly barley Down, down in a shower falls the flour Those hands that are strongest Will find a welcome here And they who work the longest Shall have the best cheer Winding, winding strong, winding all day long Round, round and round goes the mill Winding turn about till the meal is out Must never never never stand still
