"The scent of candy on the wind reveals a family's darkest sin." Life has been anything but sweet for Russell Holmes. In fact, his presence has proved to be downright deadly to his wife and child-so he leaves them. He moves to Homestead, Florida, and after two years in the small town, Russell starts to believe that he did the right thing, but bad things are starting to happen again. Now, he must track a killer with supernatural ties before his family gets caught in the crossfire and the only way to guarantee their safety is to embrace a dark talent that is both addictive and deadly. What if the very spirit that communicates to the Orisha gods decided that he wanted to live among men and retain his powers? Could such an event be stopped if the line of communication was no longer reliable? Who would be able to stop him? Author: Lacey, E. M.
