Details: Vinney grew up in London, England, and is a master carpenter/builder. However, his passion has been for singing and writing songs. Until now, it was always a hobby that took a backseat. Passion became a reality when a friend invited him to record this album, Its a Feeling, in his brand new studio, Talent Productions, in Los Angeles, USA. Vinney loved the result so much that he decided to put the album out there for everyone to share and get a feeling for his talent. This debut album was written to show off Vinneys range of song writing abilities. There have been so many artists, both past and present, who have influenced Vinney and that has been reflected in the diverse style of this album, so that the music and mood of each song is unique.
