

Minding Therapy - Ros Johnson

Daryl Stone, a therapist at a mental health center, is feeling burned out at her job. And that's just one of her issues. Among other things, there's also the sudden death of the father she never got to know, the strain which ensues in her relationship with her mom, and meeting a woman who just might be the perfect match for her - if only she wasn't also a therapist! You'd think, as her friends do, that Daryl would readily seek a shrink to call her own. But, wisecracking her way through life, Daryl has been more likely to rely on such things as pop culture, talk shows, and food for answers and solace. Therapy is for other people - or is it?
