A Mosaic of Stories and Music from Around the World 9 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Storytelling, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: Armstrong Aichele: World Tales Volume II A Mosaic of Stories Music from Around the World World Tales Volume II is the second in the series of albums of stories and music from around the world by the critically acclaimed partnership of storyteller, Genevieve Aichele and musician, Randy Armstrong. This volume features stories and music from Ireland, Mexico, Japan and West Africa. The Award Winning World Tales Volume I received praise throughout the USA and Canada. In 1992, Randy Armstrong and Genevieve Aichele began collaborating as Armstrong Aichele, a performance ensemble that merges music, movement, storytelling and theatre to animate timeless stories that appeal to audiences of all ages. Together they perform "World Tales," with music played on traditional instruments from all over the globe -- the Native American flute, the African djembe drum, North Indian sitar, Japanese Koto, Puerto Rican Cuatro, just to name a few. The stories include traditional favorites and original retellings of ancient myths. World Tales Volume I has won rave reviews. Here is what the reviewers say "This stunning collection will take you and your child far from home." -- Womens Day Magazine "The artists expressive delivery make this a fine, artistic piece." -- Billboard "This album is a winner for the entire family!" -- Tribune Media Services These tales are humorous and engaging (with) welcome variations to the typical damsel-in-distress narrative." -- Toronto Sun "This collection of multi-cultural tales and music is breathtaking." -- South Florida Parenting "Highly recommended... this recording will be enjoyed by children and adults alike." -- MultiCultural Review "My eight-year-old sat spellbound through the entire CD!" -- Parent Council, Ltd.
