All proceeds of the CD go to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation (cff.org) to find a cure for Cystic Fibrosis, a cause close to our hearts. This new CD features some heavy weight indie artist such as the group 'Simon Apple' which features special guest John Helliwell of the rock group "SUPERTRAMP". Their album including their songs on this CD, was mixed by Grammy-winning engineer, David Leonard (Paul McCartney, Rush, Prince, Tony Bennett, Avril Lavigne, Santana, Toto, kd lang, Chick Corea, Barenaked Ladies, John Mellencamp, Hootie The Blowfish, Indigo Girls, Jackson Browne, etc). Also on the album is national recording artist ELI with the title track Strong. Formally signed with Forefront/EMI Records ELI now as an indie artist is taking his music and message beyond just the selling of CDs. The album also includes the return of songwriter Josh Davis with the very inspiring song Beautiful Scars. Canadian rocker Dave Pura contributes to the album with the catchy song you will surely be singing called Bling Bling. Last albums most downloaded artist James Whitescarver returns with two classic acoustic rock songs, "I Found You" and "Lookin Good". Charity Chapman debuts on this album with the very moving If I Could Fly. These songs bring to mind the first time you heard Cat Stevens, Chicago, Santana, Cindy Lauper and Billy Joel. If any these songs move you in a special way, or reflect a personal story, the publisher would like to hear from you at the enclosed e-mail address.
