Acoustic songwriter based in New York's East Village, Molnar's sound is at the same time familiar and unquestionably original. Molnar's music upholds an unparalleled quality of truth and candor both when recorded and when presented live. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: Brian Molnar has been called one of the most talented performers and songwriters to emerge on the NYC/NJ music scene in years. Having performed with the likes of Garth Hudson, Chris Hillman, Herb Pedersen, Tom Pacheco, Professor "Louie" The Crowmatix, The Jim Weider Band, and many other notables, he has appeared in some of the finer clubs and acoustic music venues throughout the East. Molnar has also become a fixture in the emergent music scene that is centered in Lower East Side Manhattan clubs like the Sidewalk Cafe and The C-Note where he regularly packs rooms and converts listeners with his lyrically brilliant and melodic songs. An artist in the tradition of the great songwriters from Woody Guthrie all the way down through Kris Kristofferson and Townes Van Zandt, Molnar's music is rapidly being discovered and covered by other performers on the scene and beyond--a trend that is sure to continue. In an age of clever hooks and slick production, Molnar's music is a rarity in that it breathes with that quality that can only be described as truth in experience--that breath that can only come from the artist's soul.
