Relating her music to her life's experiences, Cindy has been said to have great healing power and has been helping people overcome adversity, the loss of loved ones, and to strengthen their faith for several years now. Her music has been known to calm the most restless children to the most unsettled adult. Cindy has a great love for children, and has dedicated her freshman CD to children who have fallen victims to violence (originally inspired by the Oklahoma City bombing, but sadly reinforced by events like the Columbine High School tragedy, 9/11, the war in Iraq and so many more personal tragedies that occur on a daily basis). So far Cindy has released two CD's entitled, "Walking With Angels" and "Keep the Faith", each one featuring several piano instrumentals by the talented Aaron Johnson. Cindy is also featured on other collections and collaborative CDs. She recently released her own full-length music video, a breathtaking cinematically stunning depiction of the emotional effects of war on children and soldiers, featuring Kurt Bestor's beloved "Prayer of the Children". Cindy is featured in concert appearances and CD signings throughout the United States. We believe you will find her music both soothing and comforting and you will have a difficult time taking it out of your CD player!
