Clampitt, Gaddis Buck sound is a heady blend of old-time country, bluegrass, gospel, and American folk. 14 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Bluegrass, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: With their second full-length release "Cascade Serenade!", Portland, Oregon's acoustic five-piece Clampitt, Gaddis Buck display their growth - and not just in terms of members... but keeping true to their Country / American Roots sound that so many fans critics love. Recorded by Adam Selzer at Portland's Type Foundry Studio, Cascade Serenade is a heady blend of old-time country , bluegrass, gospel, and American folk. The album features 11 original and three cover songs that showcase the sincere and stirring vocal harmonies and well-structured instrumental interplay the band has become known for. Previously a trio, Erik Clampitt (vocals, guitar, harmonica), Marley Gaddis (vocals, jaw harp), and Sean "Buck" Burke (vocals, mandolin, banjo, fiddle) have swelled their ranks by adding Lucas Jones (upright bass) and Matthew Stark (vocals, banjo, and mandolin). Cascade Serenade also features the washboard rhythms of Jennifer Stefanick and the vocal talent of Amy Sabin.
