The people that have no say in politics but are the ones to die for it. Daniel Klosek. When the religious fanatics attacked us on 9/11 our leader asked us to go shopping and to trust him with pursuit of justice. The People listened and were happy to oblige. But there were others who decided to do something about it. Ready to sacrifice everything for our freedoms, these man and women did not seek any rewards in this life or in the afterlife. They did not have any hidden agendas. These are the true American Patriots. Their goal is to defend our nation and bring to justice people who attacked our homeland and killed many innocent citizens in the name of God. Some Patriots are no longer among us because they paid the ultimate price. The shiny example of A Real American Hero is Pat Tillman. He unconditionally volunteered to defend our nation. As a fiercely independent thinker, he understood the threat of religious fanaticism coming to us from our enemies but also questioned the real motives of our Pastor in Chief who openly boasted of using Gods Guidance in getting us in to War in Iraq. Our enemies like it very much because this gave legitimacy to their own claims. No matter how Pat Tillman died, and it doesnt matter how Bushs propaganda- machine manipulated the truth. He died a truly free man and He gave his life for our freedom. His sacrifice will not be in vain as long as we insist on teaching the history and appreciate the freedoms secured to us by heroes like him. Thats why He should never be forgotten. Myself, I am just a thankful citizen. I am not a hero. I am a singer-songwriter. I am just another shopper. However, I would like to contribute something. This CD was made in memory of Maria and Roman Klosek murdered by religious extremists and dedicated to a Real American Hero Pat Tillman. Daniel

Klosek.May2008-05-07 Track#1 Soldiers farewell to the City Words and Music by: Daniel Klosek On this summer night, everything seems so right When the moon grows bright over my city Its such a quiet night, with the sky full of stars While I walk you back home in my city Ill be going away, tomorrow at dawn On a big grey Jet-Plane and I dont know for how long Theres no need for words, just hold my hand tight While we walk down the streets of my city tonight Everywhere I look, I see a friendly face Theres someone smiling at me in my city Everywhere I turn I see a familiar place Every house, every stone in this city Theres a small barber shop and the church standing high The old bench in the park, where we kissed the first time Let me see once more, all these familiar sites While we walk down the streets in my city tonight Everywhere I go and no matter how far I see this change in the world all around us Theres a rising Tide thats coming our way The dark clouds gather beyond the horizon Ill be going away, tomorrow at dawn Cause I know that somehow we must weather this storm But for now, dont cry, just hold my hand tight While we walk down the streets of my citytonight. Track#2 . "The Fallujah Shuffle"(next time they lie to us...) Daniel Klosek 2005 We are walking down the street right behind the Humvee Johnny has his back to me and I cant see Jimmys face And I thank the Lord, all mighty that my buddies are still around me Wondering what it is, Im doing in this God forsaken place We came from different countries, far from beyond the sea To get rid of the bad Dude and set the people who hate us free Were walking tall, were looking strong; we try to do some good So tell me, how come? The people give me that strange look. Ouch! Walking down the street, slow, right behind the Humvee Johnny has his back to me and I cant see Jimmys face And I thank the Lord, all mighty that my buddies are still around me Wondering what it is, Im doing in this God forsaken place Jimmy takes two men with him and goes around the block I think we got the sniper! Watch out! Second floor- nine oclock! The RPGs, IEDs and this (Finger) unfriendly gesture I pray to God oh, please, please! Couldnt we go any faster? Walking down the street, slow, right behind the Humvee Johnny has his back to me and I cant see Jimmys face And I thank the Lord, all mighty that my buddies are still around me Wondering what it is, Im doing in this God forsaken place You know I am a soldier and I got to do my best Man got to listen and do whatever it takes But when this thing is over and if Ill ever make it back I got to have a word with The Dude...that dragged me in to this mess Next time they lie to meIll say NO Next time they lie to uswell say NO Track#3 . Where Do Heroes Go? When the heroes die, the Angels watch in silence And all that will remain is the sadness. Theres no shining light, theres no grace, no glory. We flash their pictures on TV, wright their names into the wall. And after we are done with waving flags and praying, only a mothers silent cry Still goes on. Where do heroes go? Some say its straight to heaven Ive never been to heaven, then I must sayI really dont know. Why do heroes die? Why do they pay the highest price? There is a struggle for our hearts and minds that goes on forever. We must change our ways and break away from this see of darkness The Earth is the only place weve got; the only race is the Human race. now it's up to us and the future generations to make it better and wiser than it was before When the heroes die our lives will never be the same We must learn how to remember and to walkon the Moon once again.

Track # 4 My Job went to China by:Daniel Klosek Got up little late this morning Got to run! No time for breakfast Grabbed some last nights coffee, donut and quick shave Made sure that my work-uniform is clean and pressed to perfection Then I found out; it doesnt matter anymore. Oh, what a shame! Just got the news that has broken my soul Theyre closing the factory and moving to China This partys over I got left on my own Got all dressed up but aint got no place to go Here I am all-brokenhearted Trying to see the silver lining Looking for a reason not to go insane Yet my sunny days are over And this coffee tastes so lousy Now; even my favorite cigarette doesnt tastes the same They have a fancy name for it Globalization should be good for me so take it easy, be happy and dont rock the boat The experts dish out free advice Outsourcing should be the best thing now And still some politicians are telling me I am better off. But dont you see I Just got the news that has broken my soul Theyre closing the factory and moving to China This partys over I got left on my own Got all dressed up but aint got no place to go ===== Here I am all-brokenhearted Trying to see the silver lining Looking for a reason not to go insane Yet my sunny days are over And this coffee tastes so lousy Now; even my favorite cigarette doesnt tastes the same Here I am all brokenhearted Trying to see the silver lining Looking for the reason not to go insane Yet my sunny days are over And this old coffee taste real lousy Boy! Im ready for change, please somebody show me the way!

Track#5 CHRISTMAS IN BAGHDAD Christmas time is here, all around us And Im sorry I cant be with you, again Its a soldiers life and one never can be certain Though I promise, Ill be seeing you next year Ive told you a hundred times, how much I miss you And I hope youll be the first to understand That with you on my mind, an M-16 by my side This time, Ive got to stay here with my friends Christmas time is here, all around us Theres so much talk of peace and support The radio station plays a song that tells me how to kick some butt Like they know, like they really know at all The politicians cry me a river And promise me the world as if they care But all I really want is that you'll be there for me next year And I'll be fine, I'll be cool, I'll be OK. So I play along, (da da da da da.) Daniel Klosek 2005. Track#6 Paradise ( Intro :Voice of Osama Bin Laden Over Muslims Call to Prayer) Armies of anxious Jihadists, mindless, self righteous masses Raising arms in anger against the Infidels Listening to Ayatollahs in thousands of Madrasses Keeping the women down and killing the innocent. Why don't you see the obvious? Why don't you see what's really scary? It's time to wake up, time to start thinking on your own Stop listening to Ayatollahs; they're only human despite what they're saying Why trust people just because they tell you, they know it all? Cause if you are defying Reason, if you are rejecting Science Sooner or later you better be ready; you will go to war! You will go to war!

(Remarks of George Bush, Jerry Falwell and Pat Robertson after 9/11) Bush in the State of the Union ) We Americans placing Confidence in Loving God (who is) behind All of Life and All of History Falwell's outrageous, insulting remarks: with this biological warfare available to these monsters: Hussein's, Bin Laden's, Arrafat's, What we saw on Tuesday (9/11) as terrible as it is, it could be minuscule if in fact God continues to lift the curtain and allow enemies of America to give us probably what we deserve! Robertson: That's my feeling too

===== Thousands of anxious Crusaders, mindless, self righteous masses They say the God gave us freedom but not the freedom of choice. Blindly following their leaders, Armies of fanatics Keeping the women down; because it's the way of the Lord Why don't you see the obvious? Why don't you see what's really scary? It's time to wake up, time to start thinking on your own Stop listening to Ayatollahs, stop listening to people like George, Pat and Jerry Why trust people just because they tell you, they know it all? Cause if you are defying Reason, and if you keep trashing science Sooner or later you better be ready; you will go to war! You will go to war! : We don't need no education We don't need no evolution We don't need no science All we need is the word of God We don't need no teachers We need preachers that will teach us All we need is more school prayer All we need is the word of God All we need is a fearless leader Who believes in Armageddon! That will take us up to heaven Who will lead us all the way all the way to PARADISE!!) And here we go again. and again and again. and again. 2005 Track#7 Soldiers Wife Day after day I dream about you Calling your name to ease my heartache God only knows how much I love you Wish you could be here beside you It has been so long and I miss you so much I wonder if you still want me Without you beside me so cold are the nights And so empty feels every morning-thats when I close my eyes And I see you back there-across the ocean Keeping the faith and waiting as always Just like the true wife of a soldier No tears and no regrets, you know why I had to go Heaven knows maybe something good will come from it all And when my works done Ill be coming home this time for longer than ever I know youll be there still waiting for me Yet until the day I hold you forever Please, say a little prayer for me every morning. People who are interested in Elton John The Beatles Tom Jones should consider this download.
