Johanna Bonno brings cabaret to new heights with her intimate and captivating vocal styling. This lively mix of Broadway songs and standards takes you on an emotional journey through the heights, depths and even the humor of love and entanglements. A commanding performance with real vocal presence. Lively. Fun and Memorable. And slightly risqu! This album is about LOVE...AND MORE: Romantic images of Kander and Ebb's "Colored Lights" and yearnings of a modern-day Carmen "Everybody's Girl." The sad refrain in Irving Berlin's not-to-be-forgotten "Love You Didn't Do Right By Me." The joyful exhilaration in what a little lunch can do for Maltby and Shire's discreet-but-daring "Miss Byrd." JOHANNA BONNO, a versatile and talented singer, is equally at home with cabaret or classical music. As a performer in Houston, Texas, she has taken the lead in many theatrical venues including The Country Playhouse and Rice University's Shepherd School of Music. Her favorite roles include Mama Rose in "Gypsy" and Aldonza in "Man of La Mancha." She recently conceived and appeared in "Sentimental Journey," a musical review at The Country Playhouse. CLAUDIA DYLE is a popular musical director and accompanist for musical theater in Houston including "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," "Cabaret," "Hair," and "Best Little Whorehouse." Her varied career includes teaching at the High School for Performing and Visual Arts-Houston and as an accompanist at the University of Houston's Moore's School of Music.
