If you like Gene Autry singing you will fall in love with this album. 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Gospel, EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals Details: Harold stall is a retired minister and a writer of gospel songs for the past ten years. He has written over two hundred songs thus far. Thirty-two of his songs have been recorded by fifteen different recording artists and his songs have appeared on seventeen gospel albums. Several of his songs have charted and as high as #10 nationally! this is harold's second album of original songs that he has recorded with his own vocals although singing is not new to him as he had his own country western band years ago in the early fifties. The first two songs on this album, (which includes the title song of the album "my mother's angel") he wrote after reading his niece sandy phillips emotional letters that she wrote to god following the death of her mother. This is without a doubt harold's best work so far! there are a total of eleven original songs in all with great vocals and inspiring lyrics. An album that you must have and one that you will never grow tired of listening to. People who are interested in Gene Autry Willie Nelson should consider this download.
