Funky Irish country. Born in Ireland but made in the USA classic songs of love and regret 16 MP3 Songs
WORLD: Celtic, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: The McCabes have been around for six years. We have played about a thousand gigs, most of the earlier ones in bars, many of the recent ones at festivals. We are very popular in New York. People have been known to get very drunk while listening to our band; don't know why but that's a fact. That's why bars are always calling us up. They know folks will buy a lot of beer. We enjoy playing bars but we really like playing festivals; it's the smell of the grass and the sound of the birds in between sets, and hanging out with other bands on the bill. Makes you realize why you got into playing music in the first place. 'Dark before The Dawn' is our third cd, recorded in one day. You might be able to hear that while you listen; I would call the sound on this cd rough but spontaneous. I think Paddy's Day is one of my best songs. It's a description of the vibe in NYC on Paddy's Day. The last song, 'Wish I didn't but I do (love you)' is also one of my better songs, in my opinion. It describes the love/hate relationship that existed between my girlfriend (now fiancée) and I at the time. Sometimes you don't want to be with someone but you have no choice. It's kind of like that with music too. Sometimes you don't want to be doing it but you have no choice. It has you by the balls. Call it love!! Thanks, Sean.
