Zombeat unfunrecords.com Extra: Ex-producer of the Wu Tang Clan, manager of the Books and the man who trained DJ Shadow how to cut and paste, Zombeat is everyone's hero! He just got back from a tour to Germany that has left landed him in the basement again, coming up with new tracks for you all to munch on. Born and raised in Oakland CA, from the ashes of the gangsta Hip-Hop capital of the world, Zombeat is unlike you regular DJ. His hands quickly found a guitar, and with the help of some of guitars greatest legends, has become a soloist of 80's rock magnitude. He has recently kicked with weed habit, so watch out for some sobering material to be released in the next year. Zombeat would like to thank his former label, Ninja Tunes, Aesop Rock, and would like to send one up to his colleague and mentor, O'Dirty B.
