Lover's Key Sherri L. King Brandi knows the boogeyman exists. She saw him with her own eyes, leading her nephew by the hand into a vast darkness, the child never to be seen again. Three years later, several more children are missing from the tiny town of Mt. Airy, vanished under the cover of night. Armed with a video camera and flashlight, Brandi sits in their bedrooms, waiting for the telltale rattle of a closet door, to prove to the townsfolk that she's not crazy, that the monster is real-that it's preying on their children.

Templar Knight Julian is on a quest for seven keys that will open the door to the underworld, so that he and his fellow Knights may send hell's malevolent minions back to their maker. The mission is perilous enough without a distraction like Brandi. Julian didn't count on their blazing passion, on her bravery-or the part she's destined to play to vanquish evil from the Earth.
