B-Son began his music career at an early age, in elementary school. He learned to play the trumpet. While excelling in the instrument he also moved to others, the guitar, experimenting with the drums and playing the keyboard was just another challenge for him. B-Son was a band member during his entire high school years at Baltimore Polytechnic Institute (Poly). In his senior year he lead the band with his phenomenon leader skills as Drum Major. During his high school years B-Son also performed with the jazz band, and concert band. Upon graduating from high school B-Son was accepted to Howard University in Washington, D.C., joining the Marching Band there as well. After leaving Howard University B-Son decided to attend Sheffield Institution for the Recording Arts. Graduating in June 2006, B-Son has decided to spend his time perfecting his passion for music by dedicating all his time to his career goals. B-Son released his first album ELIXER in April 2006. A compilation album featuring several artists Shane Figga$ of Richmond, Va., Cold-Blooded of Baltimore, Md. D. Brasco of Baltimore, Md. Absolute of Nashville, Tennessee and singing sensation Jadea of Baltimore, Md. B-Son created his own production company ANARCIST Productions as an independent label , ANARCIST Productions performs in many shows in the Baltimore and the surrounding areas. Ready to expand ANARCIST Productions has so much to offer the world of entertainment.
