When people hear Brad Passons most agree that they've found it. Born In Chattanooga, TN, Brad grew up in a house full of music. He decided to make his dreams a reality at the age of 16 when he picked up his first guitar. By the age of 17, an ambitious Passons started a band and at 18 he was signed to a promising indie label. After a parting of ways with the label, Brad decided to take matters in his own hands and started working as a solo artist. With his heart wrenching songs and his hilarious on stage antics Brad quickly carved out a reputation as a promising entertainer. Very few solo artists can say they've shared the stage with some of their heroes this early on in their career. Brad's played with some of the largest national and regional acts in the country and it's all led up to Brad becoming one of those acts himself. With his intense live shows and swift melody lines it's no wonder he is causing such a buzz. Brad has played shows with The Fray, Matt Nathanson, Angie Aparo, Jump Little Children, Five Times August, Ellis Paul, Michael Tolcher, Mark Kano (of Athenaeum), Mike Garrigan (of Collapsis), Michael Warren, Seth Horan (formerly of Vertical Horizon), The Turning, Nevertheless, Rodney Crowell, and Josh Bales.
