My Solo Project "Dan-DoeZ-Ya" the jam-packed "R hythmic A merican P oetry" Is Exactly the FunkyEST, most Complex yet Strait Forward Talkin-type shit yer gonna hear on the street today. I'm a bit cynical here in the "Show-Me" State, Yet still, for some strange reason, a big believer in K.A.R.M.A. (Kinda Always Regulates My Ass) I always knew great hip-hop was here to save the universe starting with this little planet. The ney-sayers may still poke fun, but ain't nothin like a billion dollar industry to make 'em eat those words. Hate to be an I-told-ya-so but I was hip-hop when hip-hop wasn't cool. Stick that on your commecial bandwagon and chase it. Thank God for this forum to get my hard work finally recognized, as there is no support nor market for the starving hip-hop artists here in KC. It's all done completely for the LOVE. We may hustleNstruggleNnine-to-five, just to support our music habit, so for God's sake. . . .
