The Debut Album from the Critically Acclaimed, Contemporary Classical Singing Sensation - David Gregory. 12 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Musicals/Broadway, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: UK singing sensation David Gregory has trained under a number of acclaimed Singing Teachers, Vocal Coaches and Musical Directors over the years, including the international Opera Star Malcolm Rivers, West End Vocal Consultant Mary Hammond, British Voice Association President Mark Meylan, English National Opera Music Director Paul Daniel, their Head of Music Tony Legge, Mary King (Artistic Director of The Knack a performance course for Opera Singers) and at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London under Penelope Mackay and Theresa Goble. Davids performing credits include principal roles in Opera, Operetta, both West End and Touring Musicals, and Pantomime. He has also appeared in Concert at the Royal Festival Hall and on BBC TVs Songs of Praise, Sky TV and BBC Radio. In 2002, David was a semi-finalist on the award-winning Channel 4 series Operatunity (in collaboration with the English National Opera, EMI Classics and Diverse Ltd). His participation in the competition can be seen on the subsequent DVD release of the series. Then, as a result of being spotted by a major executive in the music industry, David was engaged by the Decca Record Company to record some sample tracks for consideration by the legendary World-Class Tenor Luciano Pavarotti prior to the recording of his farewell album Ti Adoro. In 2004, David recorded a comedy Jingle to the tune of O Sole Mio for the Jonathan Coleman and Harriet Scott Breakfast Show on Londons Heart 106.2 FM Radio Station. He was then fast-tracked by the BBC onto their popular quiz The Weakest Link to deliver an Opera-Gram to the shows notorious Quiz-Mistress 'The Queen of Mean Anne Robinson! Currently, David can be seen performing at a large number of Marks Spencer Stores throughout the UK. His stunning voice coupled with his incredibly diverse repertoire (Opera, Musicals and Pop - including Big Band, Chart and 1950s, 60s and 70s Standards), have won him such acclaim from the public that this CD - David Gregory: The Collection was recently produced to meet with the demand.
