reggae ragga dancehall 19 MP3 Songs in this album (56:58) ! Related styles: WORLD: Reggae, REGGAE: Dancehall Details: JAH Mac is an original Nigerian Africa. He grew up in Lagos, capital city of Nigeria, where he started his musical path in the Reggae Ragga Dancehall Mission. Before coming to Europe, France, in 1995, his musical road made him pass through Benin, Ghana and Togo as a singer and dancer. Since 1995 he is based in Toulouse France. He started off as the lead singer of the former Hot News roots reggae ragga dancehall band from 1995 to 2001. They performed all over France and were quite successful. Meanwhile he formed Massiv Imperial Sound System (1996-1998) with some western Indies brothers, a huge togetherness sound that led the town's Reggae scene for a couple of years. Consequently he formed his first live group Tree Culture, 1996-1999, a mixture of Ragga Vibes. They performed for a while before the group split for some different artistic and ethical reasons. In 2000, Jah Mac spent some time in meditation before he decided to create FREEDOM FIGHTERS. A collective of reggae ragga dancehall singers from all over the world, promoting the unity of Rastafarian culture through various young talents. In 2001, FREEDOM FIGHTERS produced their first album Ragga/Hip-Hop featuring JAH Mac, Mikel Thunda and Cultchamosaah, mixed and recorded by Issa Dread in African Children Studio. Produced in limited number, a total of 100 home-made albums distributed independently through the ghetto underground movement. In 2002, FREEDOM FIGHTERS came out with a new album, Make Me Go Redda, 13 DJs from Africa, West Indies, Jamaica, Europe, Reggae Ragga Dance Hall mix tape style. Produced in collaboration with Association Tous les Mmes, the first edition was sold all over France and backed with FREEDOM FIGHTERS sound system. In 2003, the national independent music distributor MOSAIC MUSIC remarks Make Me Go Redda. A second edition is produced and this time distributed worldwide ! At the same time, Jah Mac starts putting up FREEDOM FIGHTERS LIVE BAND, he is the lead vocal backed up by Faya Fighters band . 2004 next two albums: Faya News and No Backward. Raggaee Ragga Roots original twin albums. Almost 15 singers small and big from Kingston to Paris to Gwada and Africa, to keep on with the rastafari togetherness, promoting unity and love, fighting for, a better day, freedom of speech and expression. Faya News means nothing else but the bigger part of one in a Total Control Force. No Backward means no backward in life because life is a victory. Jah Mac

2004 FREEDOM FIGHTERS A journey to the dancehall world, talking about life reality, society. Since Freedom is a culture from creation, Freedom Fighters like you and me and every one of us. Each one teaches one, the love of life, tolerance and over standing togetherness which is the unity. This is the message Freedom Fighters has been passing to the people. Reggae music unites future vibes. So Roots music is trinity music. That means Jah is one. One people. Music alone could bring people together as one, Black, White, Chinese, Arab ... Jah Mac

2005 2005 With the insistence of some fans, Jah Mac produced a Vinyl Album, limited edition, compilation of his best songs in FAYA NEWS, NO BACKWARD. Distributed independently by TLM. Meanwhile, the live band has more and more success and plays around France and Europe. 2006, Yellow House Dub Vibes sees the light ! Still backed up by Mosaic Music and Tous les Mmesa trip in the Dub Reggae World, Vocally backed up by Jah Mac, Moses I, Clem (Clem&Co) and Mariam Freedom Fighters with dub influence, wicked and wild, Freedom and Liberty. So this very album, Yellow House Dub Vibes, talks about open atmosphere and showing a direction to a Freedom world in the mind." Jah Mac

2006 Always faithful to his underground, independent, system D movement, Jah Mac, by the force of will power and faith, with the means of the board produces independently, in collaboration with Alain Baggi 3 video clips Faya News 2006, No Backward 2006 and Search and find 2007. Jah Mac, takes his time goes into self and concrete creation, forward, no backward music and soul reggae inspiration. He keeps on to his destination. Writing, composing, recording finding his own personal path. Keepin up with his dream of music and freedom, self introspection, overcoming.
