Original Western Canadian Song Poetry 15 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Joni, COUNTRY: Country Folk
Details: Jeannine Munn (Jack) and Dan Rudick (Lefty) will always remain Tried True but over the years theyve gained a reputation as Jack n Lefty. Their acoustic sound combining lyrical depth and memorable melodies conveys a lifetime of experience. Vancouver born, Dan honed his songwriting craft in L.A. CA and Austin, TX. He was inspired by his mentor, Townes Van Zandt, The Father of Texas roots music songwriting. Calgary born, Jeannine brings extensive musical theatre experience to the duo. The two produce a powerful, fun and entertaining show of original material. Their sound is best described as Western Roots Music Song Poetry. Troubadours on the road singing with real emotion touching the hearts of anyone willing to listen. Lefty on acoustic guitar, Jack on mandolin, creates a seamless musical landscape for their unique vocal harmonies. These seasoned performers spin tales that uplift your spirit. Their songs have been aired on the following radio stations: Kamloops CFJC, Calgary Vancouver CBC and CHLY 101.7 FM Nanaimo. From Padova City Music Festival, Kamloops, BC 93, the Calgary Stampede, AB 95, on to showcases in Austin, TX. and Santa Fe, New Mexico, they arrived back in BC in 1996. As Salt Spring Island residents, they performed regularly throughout Southern BC. In 2004, they appeared at the Salt Spring Folk Club and Nanaimos Songwriter Showcase, as well as being the steady entertainment at Poets Cove, South Pender Island. Their third CD Tour of No Regrets celebrates ten years playing together and their new CD The Underdog was released in 2005. Before moving to Victoria, BC in 2006 they rerecorded "Snapshot Pictures" adding a new song and calling the new CD "Snapshot Pictures Revisited" ENJOY!
