Progressive acoustic folk...poetic and lyrical with a myriad of musical influences from pop to bluegrass-hip-hop. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Award-winning songwriter Kathy Hussey returns with her third and most engaging project to date. Featuring performances by Tim O'Brien, Bryan Sutton, Andrea Zonn, Byron House, Mike Henderson, George Tidwell, Bob Mater and others, it's a provocative blend of progressive genre-busting acoustic music. Kathy's songs are portraits of people and places, painted with heartbreaking and uplifting honesty. "Moments of Wonder's true accomplishment is its successful framing of top-rate story-songs. The singing is great, the playing is great, the whole record just sounds great, but the songs are inspired, and that's why we care. Kathy Hussey is an artist with something to say and the talents to say it in ways that resonate. The work as a whole draws from a myriad of genres and forges a shining example of what can happen when an artist in her prime gets coaxed into a recording studio with all the right collaborators. Good music leaves a mark, and Kathy Hussey's Moments of Wonder is soul-touching stuff." --Dan Schaefer, Alliance Entertainment
