Details: In 2007 Lizzy's debut album 'Drawing Triangles' won Ithaca, NY's Jimmy Award for best female vocal performance and also received an honorable mention as best solo album of the year. Her second album 'Lunatic Fringe' will be available in March 2009 and will feature guest musicians from all over the US as well as Lizzy's first recordings on the piano. Growing up, Lizzy spent most of her time hanging around music shops on Cape Cod and surrounding herself with every kind of music and musician she could find. Lizzy was introduced to the enchanting world of professional music at the age of twelve when she opened for the Boston Pops with the world percussion ensemble 'Explicit Noise'. She went on to study jazz and classical composition at Providence College in RI before heading to Ithaca NY where she recorded and released her debut album 'Drawing Triangles'. In Ithaca she blossomed into a full time singer/songwriter and now tours full-time throughout the Northeast, Southeast and Midwest.
